

ROGER J. WOOD

INTERIM CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Roger J. Wood is Interim Chief Executive Officer of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. He has served on the Company's Board of Directors since July 2023.

Wood brings more than three decades of leadership in the automotive and manufacturing industries, having led global businesses across automotive technology, operations, customer relationships and strategic planning. From 2018 to 2020, he served as co-Chief Executive Officer of Tenneco, Inc., a global automotive components manufacturer. Previously, he served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Fallbrook Technologies, a developer of patented transmission technology, which he joined in April 2018.

From 2011 to 2015, Wood served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Dana Holding Corporation, a global supplier of highly engineered driveline, sealing and thermal-management technologies for light vehicles, commercial trucks and off-highway equipment. He joined Dana following a 26-year career with BorgWarner Incorporated, where he held positions of increasing responsibility, including as Executive Vice President and Group President of the company's Engine Group.

Wood also serves on the boards of PHINIA Incorporated, a developer of sustainable fuel systems, and Brunswick Corporation, a global leader in recreational boats, marine engines and marine parts and accessories.

Wood received his bachelor's degree in engineering technology from Buffalo State University and his MBA from Syracuse University.
